

Lyndal is a natural resource management professional specialising in community engagement, community development and communications; and is the Communications Manager at Cape York Natural Resource Management. She has a Bachelor in Arts (Communications) and has a Master of Environmental Management (NRM and Conservation).

